

Jalapeño FUTURES Golf Classic

Jalapeño FUTURES Golf Classic Qualifier set for March 25th

The McAllen Hispanic Chamber of Commerce will host its 2nd annual Jalapeño FUTURES Golf Classic the week of April 24-30 at Palm View Golf Course.

This year's tournament will have players representing 41 states and 31 nations. New countries to the Duramed FUTURES Golf Tour include The Bahamas, Germany, Ireland, Russia and Wales.

As tournament host, the McAllen Hispanic Chamber of Commerce is allowed to enter two amateur lady golfers into the tournament; one from the Rio Grande Valley and one from Mexico. A qualifying tournament will be held for both amateur exemptions.

The qualifier to represent the McAllen Hispanic Chamber of Commerce will be held Saturday, March 25th at 1:00 pm at Palm View Golf Course. The format will include 18 holes of stroke play with the winner advancing to the McAllen Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Jalapeño FUTURES Golf Classic to be held April 28-30, 2006. Local women with a USGA Handicap of 6 or below are encouraged to participate. Entry fee for the qualifying tournament is $50.
